

Every Child Matters

Blue Peris Mountain Centre – Outdoor Learning and Development

Stay Safe

- Understanding & managing risk
- Learn to assess risk
- Respecting boundaries
- Survival skills/ self reliance
- Building self-confidence
- Increasing self-esteem
- Challenging negative behavior

Outdoor Education can deliver the five identified outcomes in the following ways!

Be Healthy

- Encouraging physical activity
- Building confidence
- Developing emotional learning
- Positive Mental health
- Therapeutic
- Fostering independence

Achieve Economic Well-Being

- Providing for young people at risk of exclusion
- Contributing to alternative curriculum model

Make a Positive Contribution

- Achieving success
- Awareness of social interaction
- Teamwork development
- Encouraging problem solving & creative thinking
- Developing leadership capacity
- Volunteering
- Conservation/ environmental awareness

Enjoy & Achieve

- Fun, exciting and engaging
- Learning new ways
- Experiences that compliment & reinforce learning
- Developing positive attitudes
- Accreditation
- Instantly tangible results/ progress
- Positive involvement in activities
- Opportunities for review & reflection
- Developing key skills
- Developing unique personal qualities